Adaptability Path – Legal Disclaimer

Last updated: March 15, 2026

The information provided on this website by NeedsHelps, LLC DBA Adaptability Path (“we,” “our,” or “us”) is for general informational and educational purposes only.

While we strive to keep information accurate and up to date, laws, policies, and regional service systems may change. The information on this website should not be considered legal, medical, financial, or professional advice.

Independent Facilitation Services

Adaptability Path provides independent facilitation and guidance services to support individuals and families navigating services such as the Self-Determination Program (SDP) and other disability-related resources.

Independent Facilitators do not make decisions for participants. All final decisions regarding services, supports, and budgets remain the responsibility of the participant and their planning team.

No Legal or Medical Advice

Nothing on this website constitutes legal advice, medical advice, financial advice, or clinical services. Visitors should consult qualified professionals such as attorneys, licensed clinicians, financial advisors, or medical professionals when appropriate.

We respect and prioritize client confidentiality and make every effort to handle personal information with care and discretion in accordance with applicable privacy practices.

Regional Center and Government Programs

Adaptability Path is an independent service provider and is not a government agency.

We are not affiliated with, endorsed by, or representing any Regional Center, the California Department of Developmental Services (DDS), or any other governmental entity unless explicitly stated.

Participation in programs such as the Self-Determination Program is subject to eligibility requirements and approval by the appropriate Regional Center.

Independent Facilitators do not authorize services, approve budgets, or make funding decisions. All service authorizations and funding determinations are made solely by the appropriate Regional Center and the participant's planning team.

Educational Navigation Services

Educational navigation services offered through Adaptability Path provide guidance, informational support, and advocacy strategies. These services do not replace the role of schools, educational institutions, or licensed educational professionals.
